

Ficifolia Lodge

Ficifolia Lodge (built in 1997 at former State BANK Agency site) in the Soldier Settlement township of Parndana. (Pop 120). Close to Community owned Hotel, General Stores & 7 day bakery. The town hosts its own private habitat for many wildlife species such as koalas, wallabies, possums, kangaroos, echidnas and beautiful birdlife. Parndana is the last service township before entering the north coast and western end of the Island. Centrally located, the complex offers a peaceful and relaxing place to stay and use as your base while touring the Island.
